SIGN CELEBRATES LANDSCAPE, HISTORY AND WILDLIFE

RESIDENTS and visitors to Pennal now have a vibrant landmark in the village.

This new visual interpretation of the landscape has been officially launched with the semi-circular landscape map supported by the funding from the Pennal 2050 project with its design and installation co-ordinated by Pennal Community Council. Council Chair Meirion Roberts thanked the panel's designers and Pennal 2050 for the opportunity to provide "an eye-catching new addition which is already attracting many visitors to study it and better understand our natural and historic landscape, its biodiversity and the important buildings within it".

After the event, James Brunton, chair of Pennal 2050 Steering Group, thanked all involved in the preparatory work, design and installation which is funded by the Welsh Government Rural Communities' Rural Development Programme 2014-2020, through the European Agricultural Fund for Rural Development and the Welsh Government.
